

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Statement

On 22 July 2015 the Department for Education (DfE) published an updated version of its statutory guidance on safeguarding, Keeping Children Safe in Education, which sets out the statutory requirements regarding Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks.

Rooks Heath College is committed to following this guidance when carrying out its duties to safeguard and promote the welfare of children.

“All staff and volunteers are subject to an enhanced DBS check on their appointment to the College. There are annual checks on existing staff.” Rooks Heath College Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy December 2015.
