

Online Safety Evening - Links for parents

Safeguarding

Internet Watch Foundation – an independent charity that aims to help victims of child sexual abuse worldwide by identifying and removing online sexual imagery of under 18s, offering a place for the public to report suspected indecent images of children anonymously.

Marie Collins Foundation – a charity enabling children who have suffered sexual abuse and exploitation online to recover and live safe, fulfilling lives

National Crime Agency CEOP – a command of the NCA working with child protection partners across the UK to identify and eradicate threats to children

Samaritans – a suicide prevention charity with a 24-hour confidential helpline.

NSPCC – charity working to protect children and prevent abuse.

Stop It Now! – a child abuse prevention campaign and anonymous helpline for individuals worried about their own sexual thoughts or behaviour towards children or that of others.

Parental controls

Broadband

Visit the UK Safer Internet Centre to access helpful video guides to help you to download and set-up the controls offered by your provider.

Other devices

Visit the UK Safer Internet Centre Parents' Guide to Technology for more information.

Social media

Visit the UK Safer Internet Centre's Section on social networks and other online services.

National Online Safety

<https://info.nationalonlinesafety.com/mobile-app>

Cybersecurity

<https://www.ncsc.gov.uk/cyberaware/home>