

Supported Internships at amazon

in partnership with Ambitious College and DFN Project Search

Are you a young person looking to develop your employability skills in a real work setting?
If so, a supported internship at Amazon could be the perfect opportunity for you!

We're looking for candidates who are:

-  age 18-25 with an Education, Health and Care (EHC) plan
-  autistic or have a related learning difficulty
-  eager to develop employability skills and build confidence
-  motivated to secure full-time paid employment
-  able to travel independently or working towards it.

If this sounds like you, apply now!

Recruiting now for September

You will be immersed in one of Amazon's largest sites in Europe, working five days a week, for one academic year. Alongside hands-on job experience, you'll benefit from:

- on-the-job training in roles such as warehouse and sortation
- dedicated support on-site teachers and job coaches
- daily training and curriculum sessions focused on preparing you for work
- increased independence and confidence.
